

Bio: Courtney Brown

Courtney Brown has served as Family Partnership Director at HFH East Central Ohio for the past 6 years. During her tenure with the affiliate, Courtney not only enhanced existing partner family education opportunities but also used her talent and heart to create a holistic educational curriculum for families.

This good work has made HFH East Central Ohio a training ground for affiliates from all over the country who have come to learn and model the program. Courtney has taught workshops at both the State level in Ohio as well as HFHI and was part of a Global Village team working in El Salvador.

As Courtney begins to migrate into an operations role at the affiliate, she enjoys working with staff who seek to put God's love into action by bringing people together to build homes and communities of hope.

Courtney is a Canton, Ohio native and a graduate of Baldwin-Wallace College where she earned a Bachelor's of Science degree.
