

Bio: Marion McCoy Foster

Marion McCoy Foster; MSW, LSW, is a native of Gary, Indiana where she spent most of her childhood before relocating to Ohio. She has been a Social Worker for almost fifteen years in a Social Service Agency.

Despite the many challenges Marion has faced throughout her life, she was able to penetrate through the foster care system and eventually focus on what she felt she was destined to become, which was ... a Social Worker.

Marion has dedicated her life to helping and serving families. With the release of her new book; "Who Am I Why Do I Exist" she hopes to encourage children and families across the world to break through barriers and be the best that they can be.

Marion strongly believes that everything happens for a reason and that everyone was born with a purpose. Marion now knows that after all the things she endured throughout her childhood; part of her purpose in life was to write this book.
